

Writers' Retreats

The Heritage listed Katharine Susannah Prichard Writers Centre offers daily, weekly and monthly accommodation for writers wishing to find a space in which to progress a major piece of writing. It is ideal for PhD or Masters Students writing their thesis (some universities might even provide funding for their students.)

Opportunities exist for all writers to participate in, and contribute to, the literary activities at the Centre and in Western Australia by way of workshops, mentoring and readings.

The Katharine Susannah Prichard Writers Centre

The Centre is located in the hills east of Perth in Western Australia.

The ambience of the Centre is excellent for creativity and inspiration. 20-60,000 words are frequently achieved by our Writers in Residence in a four week stay, in between enjoying the interaction with local writers.

Accommodation

The KSP Writers Centre provides three individual and self contained retreats. These comfortable, modern cottages, set in shady gardens a short distance from the main house, offer writers a quiet and peaceful residency in natural surroundings. Each retreat can sleep two, has its own ensuite shower and toilet, is equipped with reverse cycle air conditioning, cooking facilities, has access to Internet broadband and is 24 hours security monitored.
